KEY QUESTIONS FOR ANALYSIS AND DISCUSSION

a. How do the experiences of Asian American women inform broader systems of power and inequality?

b. What are the various forms of violence confronting Asian American women? How have Asian American women organized against violence in their lives?

c. How have Asian American women contributed to movements for social change?

(Continued)
AMERASIA JOURNAL | classroom connections

RELATED CENTER PUBLICATIONS

- Kelli Yoshie Nakamura, “Yeiko Mizobe So and the Japanese Women’s Home for Abused Picture Brides (1895-1905)
- Kun Jong Lee, “Ishle Yi Park’s The Temperature of This Water: Anatomy of Korean America”
- Pa Xiong Gonzalo, “Growing up Hmong in Laos and America: Two Generations of Women through My Eyes”

Amerasia Journal 31:2 (2005) 30 YearsAfterWARd: Vietnamese Americans & U.S. Empire:

- Lan Duong, “Manufacturing Authenticity: The Feminine Ideal in Tony Bui’s Three Seasons”

- Min Young Kim and Edward Taehan Chang, “Korean Forced Laborers and Women Used as ‘Sex Slaves’ During World War II: Transported by Japan’s Merchant Ships”
- Janet Chang, “Married and Divorced Korean Immigrant Women: A Report on Their Psychological Well-being”

- Sridevi Nair, “‘A Record of Our Lives’: Anthologizing the Lesbian in India”