Want to get the latest on the Asian American and Pacific Islander community? ...but don’t want to pay big bucks? $20 special student subscription!

Subscribe to the UCLA Asian American Studies Center journals!
For $20, get a year subscription to one of AASC’s groundbreaking and innovative journals that are paving the way in Asian American and Pacific Islander studies.

1. AAPI NEXUS JOURNAL: policy, practice, and community
   - This national journal draws from professional schools, social science scholars, and practitioners with the explicit goal of reinvigorating Asian American Studies’ traditional mission of serving communities and generating practical research.
   - 1 year = 2 issues!
   - Don’t miss these upcoming issues:
     - K-12 Education
     - Higher Education
     - Intersections in Education
   - Previous issues have focused on:

2. AMERASIA JOURNAL
   - Since 1971, the Center has published Amerasia, the leading interdisciplinary journal in Asian American Studies, which has helped establish Asian American Studies as a viable and relevant field of scholarship, teaching, community service, and public discourse.
   - 1 year = 3 issues!
   - Recent issues include:
     - Where Women Tell Stories
     - Subjugated to Subject: Through Class, Race, & Sex
     - The Political World of Asian Americans: A Tribute to Don T. Nakanishi

For more information, please visit http://www.aasc.ucla.edu/aascpress/morepress.asp