

Scholarships, Grants & Internships: Due Monday, February 26, 2018

Nhat H. Tran, M.D. Scholarship (NEW!)	1 award at $1,000
Angie Kwon Memorial Scholarship	1 award at $3,000
21st Century Undergraduate Scholarship	1 award at $1,500
Toshio & Chiyoko Hoshide Scholarship	1 award at $5,000
Reiko Uyeshima & Family Scholarship	1 award at $5,000
Chidori Aiso Memorial Scholarship	1 award at $5,000
George & Sakaye Aratani Community Internship	1 award at $5,000
John Kubota Grant in Japanese American Studies	1 award at $5,000
Morgan & Helen Chu Outstanding Scholar Award	1 award at $5,000
21st Century Undergraduate Internship	1 award at $1,500
Yuen Fong & Lew Oy Toy Family Internship in Chinese American Studies	1 award at $4,500

Academic Prizes: Due Monday, March 5, 2018

Hiram Wheeler Edwards Prize for the Study of WWII Internment Camps & Japanese Americans	1 award at $500
Professor Harry H.L. Kitano Undergraduate Prize	1 award at $500
Ben & Alice Hirano Academic Prize	1 award at $500
Tsugio & Miyoko Nakanishi Prize in Asian American Literature & Culture	1 award at $500
Rose Eng Chin & Helen Wong Eng Fellowship	1 award at $500

ELIGIBILITY

- For Scholarships, Internships, Grants, and Academic Prizes, the applicant must be a registered continuing undergraduate student enrolled at UCLA in Fall 2018, Winter 2019, Spring 2019 and can include Summer 2018 if applicable.
- Applicant can be enrolled in any departmental major program at UCLA.
- Additional eligibility or criteria requirements for specific scholarships, prizes, internships, and grants may be listed.
- Applicant can be of any race or ethnicity for most fellowships, scholarships, internships and grants.

GUIDELINES

- Students can submit papers they have written for academic coursework or can submit newly written papers or proposals.
- You can submit only one paper or proposal for a specific prize or scholarship. You CAN NOT submit multiple papers or proposals for the same prize or scholarship.
- Application should be typed.
- Double-space your papers, essays or proposals and use a 12 pt. standard font (e.g. Times New Roman).
- Copies can be double-sided.
- Only complete applications will be considered for review. Application packages with incomplete information and/or copies will be disqualified.
- See complete application package list below.

GUIDELINES (continued)

The application package must be submitted with the documents in the order listed below:

- 1) General Application form
- 2) Curriculum Vitae or Resume
- 3) An unofficial (or student copy) transcript may be obtained online through MyUCLA. The unofficial transcript can be viewed on-screen or printed as a PDF. There is no charge for an unofficial transcript.
<http://www.registrar.ucla.edu/Student-Records/Academic-Transcript>
- 4) Completed Faculty Recommendation form (if requested). Use form on page 3 of application. Unless request is stated, recommendations are not required or optional for most Scholarships and Academic Prizes. One UCLA Faculty reference required on application form, second reference and/or letter of recommendation optional.
- 5) Document requested for specific scholarship, grant, internship, or academic prize or i.e. proposal, essay, paper. At the top of the first page of this document, include your name and the name of the specific scholarship, grant, internship or academic prize that this document is being submitted for. You should also state the title of the paper or proposal on the application cover page for the specific scholarship, grant, internship, or academic prize. Do not put any other information not being requested.

For Scholarship, Internship, and Grant applications only, you must submit the following forms to the respective entities listed below between the dates of January 4 and March 2, 2018 on a yearly basis.

- 1) The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/>.
Submit by March 2, 2018.
- 2) The Continuing UCLA Undergraduate Scholarship Application at <http://www.financialaid.ucla.edu/Undergraduate/Applying-for-Aid>
Submit by March 2, 2018.
- 3) Personal statement of your financial situation and need (submit with your application package).
For personal statement, write what your financial situation is, such as:
 - a. If you work, how many hours a week; what is the monthly/annual pay?
 - b. Is anyone able to financially support you; why or why not?
 - c. What are the conditions for your financial need?
 - d. If you have loan debt, what type, how much?

Academic Prize applications do not need financial information submitted.

Submit application with your curriculum vitae/resume and proposal/essay/paper as a Microsoft Word document and pdf of your academic transcript to scp@aasc.ucla.edu, in the email subject heading, please enter: 2018 Application for Scholarship / Internship / Academic Prize (as appropriate).

Copies of this application and information on other scholarships are available at:

- AASC web page <http://www.aasc.ucla.edu/scholarships/>
- Scholarship Resource Center, 233 Covell Commons, (310) 206-2875, <http://www.scholarshipcenter.ucla.edu/>

For additional information, please contact Meg Thornton, Coordinator AASC Student & Community Engagement:

- By e-mail at meg@ucla.edu
- By phone at (310) 825-1006

Undergraduate Student Scholarships, Research Grants and Internships

Nhat H. Tran, M.D. Scholarship (New!)

Award: 1 award at $1,000

Criteria: Applicant must have a disability.

Eligibility: Registered continuing undergraduate student enrolled at UCLA in Fall 2018, Winter 2019, Spring 2019 and can include Summer 2018 if applicable. Students with disabilities can be from any UCLA departmental major Essay: Describe your background and in dealing with your disability and how you will achieve your educational goals and future plans. Essay should be no more than 500 words maximum.

Angie Kwon Memorial Scholarship

Award: 1 award at $3,000 each

Criteria: Campus or community service experience and financial need.

Essay question: In your experience, how does community service, on and off campus, enhance your university education?
Essay can be 5 pages maximum.

21st Century Undergraduate Scholarship

Award: 1 award at $1,500 each

Criteria: Academic record, application and proposal must reflect student's interest in community-oriented research in the Asian Pacific American community of Southern California.

Proposal: Describe your research project on the Asian Pacific American community in detail, including:

- precise statement of the research project and its key objectives;
- research project plans, including faculty and/or community based organizations involved;
- timeline for completion;
- the type of paper you expect as a result from the work;
- any conference presentation and/or publication plans, if applicable.

Limit your proposal to 5 pages maximum.

Faculty Recommendation form on page 3 of application must be submitted.

Toshio & Chiyoko Hoshide Scholarship

Award: 1 award at $5,000 each

Criteria: Academic record, undergraduate paper on Japanese American history and/or experience.

Papers can be written for any academic course or may be new papers. Papers can be about 10 pages.

Reiko Uyeshima & Family Scholarship

Award: 1 award at $5,000 each

Eligibility: Application and paper must reflect student's interest in Japanese American and/or Japanese Studies, Which may include history, literature, arts, politics, economics, culture, language, media, health and society.

Criteria: Financial need, undergraduate paper on Japanese American or Japanese studies.

Papers can be written for any academic course or may be new papers. Papers can be about 10 pages.

Undergraduate Student Scholarships, Research Grants and Internships (continued)

Chidori Aiso Memorial Scholarship

Award: 1 award at $5,000 each

Eligibility: Continuing undergraduate students of Japanese ancestry.

Criteria: Academic record, commitment to service and financial need.

Essay question: The Japanese American history and experience has many lessons to offer to people of all backgrounds in this country. What do you consider to be the most important lesson that should be shared with American society? Why? Essay can be about 10 pages.

George & Sakaye Aratani Community Internship

Award: 1 internship stipend at $5,000 each, for a ten week summer internship at 20 hours a week or a twenty week internship at 10 hours a week over two quarters.

Eligibility: Continuing undergraduate students of Japanese ancestry. Student will be funded for a proposed internship with one of the following Japanese American community-based organizations:

❖ Kizuna <http://www.kizuna-la.org/>

❖ Japanese American Cultural and Community Center <http://www.jaccc.org>

❖ Little Tokyo Service Center www.ltsc.org

during 10 weeks in Summer 2017 or 20 weeks for 2 quarters during Summer & Fall 2018, Fall 2018 & Winter 2019, Winter 2019 & Spring 2019. Students interested in non-profit organizations, leadership development, community engagement, youth development, arts, education, social welfare, psychology, urban planning, community economic development, Japanese American & Asian American history and experience are encouraged to apply.

Criteria: Academic record.

Essay: Describe your background, interest, and/or experience in working with a community or campus organization focused on leadership development, youth, arts and culture, or social services, especially one dedicated to Japanese Americans. Please indicate if you are bilingual and/or bicultural. Essay can be 5 pages maximum.

John Kubota Grants in Japanese American Studies

Award: 1 award at $5,000

Eligibility: Continuing undergraduate students of Japanese ancestry. Grant will subsidize a project on research, creative endeavor, or community service in an area related to the Japanese American experience.

Criteria: Academic record and relevance and impact of research proposal.

Essay: Describe your project, including its key goals and objectives and how it will be accomplished (e.g. plans, procedures, methodology, etc.).

Explain how it will contribute to Japanese American Studies and/or the Japanese American community.

Also provide a budget detailing expenses (travel, supplies, etc.).

Faculty Recommendation form on page 3 of application must be submitted.

Morgan & Helen Chu Outstanding Scholar Award

Award: 1 award at $5,000

Criteria: A freshman student recipient will be selected after one year of course completion in any field of study, judged on academic record, highest grade point average and cumulative units completed based on data from the UCLA Registrars Office.

No application to submit, recipient will be identified from UCLA Registrar data records.

Undergraduate Student Scholarships, Research Grants and Internships (continued)

21st Century Undergraduate Internship

Award: 1 award at $1,500

Eligibility: Continuing undergraduate students who are enrolled in the Asian American Studies Bachelor of Arts or Minor program, and/or who are enrolled in AAS classes preferred. Student will be funded for an internship with the UCLA Asian American Studies Center for 2 quarters during Summer/Fall quarter 2018, Fall 2018/Winter 2019 or Winter/Spring quarter 2019. Student will intern for 8 hours a week for 8 weeks during the quarter working with faculty and/or staff on a special project or program.

Criteria: Academic record, application and personal essay must reflect student's interest in the field of Asian American and/or Pacific Island Studies.

Essay: Describe your interest and/or experience with the Asian American Studies Center and/or with the field of Asian American and/or Pacific Island Studies. Essay can be 5 pages maximum.

Yuen Fong and Lew Oy Toy Family Internship in Chinese American Studies

Award: 1 award at $4,500

Terms: Ten week summer internship at 30 hours per week during the period of mid-June to early September. Student will be funded for a proposed internship with either of the two following sites:

- Chinese American Museum camla.org
- Chinese Historical Society of Southern California www.chssc.org.

Eligibility: Students in any degree program can apply. Students interested in Chinese American Studies, Asian American Studies, History, Art, Museum Studies, Law are encouraged to apply.

Essay: Please describe your background, interest, and/or experience in working with a community organization or project dedicated to Chinese Americans. Please indicate if you are bi/multilingual in any language and/or bi/multicultural with any ethnicity/race. Essay should be no more than 500 words maximum.

Academic Prizes for Undergraduate Students (continued on next page)

Academic Prizes for Undergraduate Students

Papers can be written for any academic course or may be newly written papers. Papers can be about 10 pages. However, quality of paper is more important than quantity of pages.

Hiram Wheeler Edwards Prize for the Study of WWII Internment Camps & Japanese Americans

Award: One $500 prize

Criteria: Academic record and most outstanding undergraduate paper on a topic related to the lessons learned from the World War II internment of Japanese Americans.

Professor Harry H.L. Kitano Undergraduate Prize

Award: One $500 prize

Criteria: Academic record and most outstanding undergraduate paper relating to Asian Pacific Americans in the context of Race Relations.

Ben & Alice Hirano Academic Prize

Award: One $500 prize

Criteria: Academic record and most outstanding undergraduate paper on Asian Pacific American history and/or experience.

Tsugio & Miyoko Nakanishi Prize in Asian American Literature & Culture

Award: One $500 prize

Criteria: Academic record, outstanding undergraduate paper about Asian Pacific American literature, arts, and culture.

Rose Eng Chin & Helen Wong Eng Prize

Award: One $500 prize

Eligibility: Application must reflect student's interest in Asian Pacific American Studies and/or Women's Studies.

Criteria: Academic record and most outstanding undergraduate paper on Asian Pacific American women.