Dear Bill & Mary

I can't tell you how joyful I was when I received your charming letter. It is great pleasure for me to read each word of your letter because it gives me great hope.

The only thing I can do is to thank you both very much for your kindness. I will be among you soon, and am looking forward with great excitement to meeting you and your family. It is a great solace for me to know that I will be welcome at your kind home. Before my arrival in New York. I shall send you telegram and a letter. And I will not be afraid to be abandoned in a foreign country, for you know it well it is a great pity for a girl like myself to be alone and without a job in North America!

Your charming letter gives me consolation and confidence and I hope to complete very soon all my passport formalities really. I have neither acquaintances nor friends in America. But I wish to come here because I have an affectionate attachment and interest in America. Moreover I need your help in many ways. But first of all. I do not wish to take advantage of you and your kindness.

I hope to leave Vietnam as soon as possible for I am impatient and anxious for my departure, so I will see you and your family very soon. I will wire to you the date of my arrival in New York later.

I thank you in advance very much gratefully

Sant
