William Moses Kunstler

Racial Justice Awards

BILL KUNSTLER LOVED LIFE AND HATED RACISM. In 1966 he co-founded the Center for Constitutional Rights, an organization born out of the civil rights movement and dedicated to linking the legal and political struggles for equal justice. Bill's legacy is the courageous way he represented his clients and the magical way he connected with people. Bill's family and friends, with the Center for Constitutional Rights, have created the William Moses Kunstler Fund for Racial Justice to carry on his work. The Fund will expand and enhance CCR's racial justice litigation while embarking on a creative and aggressive public education program to "put the spotlight on racism." We take on this task with pride, love and determination, in the spirit of Bill, named "Eagle Man" or "Soaring Eagle Who Watches Over Us" by his American Indian friends.

With Bill watching over us, we intend to make the work of the Fund his legacy.
